Journal your thoughts about the following quotation:

If we stamp out the stigma attached to mental health issues, shed the shame and eliminate the fear, then we open the door for people to speak freely about what they are feeling and thinking. Then we enable individuals to seek help, get treatment and, hopefully, overcome their issue before it becomes extreme, scary and deadly.

~ Jaletta Albright Desmond

©Whole Person Associates, 101 W 2nd St, Suite 203, Duluth, MN 55802 www.wholeperson.com